Which of the points above do these passage say are important to think about?

Summary of Bible teaching

(a) I Corin. 12:4-7 teaches: Everybody has some ability. We all have different ability. We should use our abilities for the good of all ie. to help the whole community.

(b) Luke 12:15. salary is not the most important thing. We can accept low wages in order to serve other people.

(c) Matt. 25:31-46. We will be judged by how we have helped others.

2. Discussion:

(a) Who is more important, a farmer or a doctor? a bank-teller or a carpenter?

(b) If you leave school and go back to the village, have you "failed" to get a job? What could you do to help the community?
